Juror: Latrell Broughton

Broughton is an interdisciplinary artist based in photography. He is a two-time recipient of the North Carolina Artist Support grant, as well as a two-time Fulbright semi-finalist applicant. His work synthesizes photography images, archival material, and emerging design to create interactive images that unfold over time and space.

Broughton is the founder of BlueBook Magazine, a publication that bridges differences through themes of art, activism, and travel. His first solo exhibition, "Worlds Near and Far" was on display in Manteo, North Carolina in summer 2021.
